LPN/Paramedic to RN Pathway Admission Information

Step 1. Submit your application to the college. After submitting your application to the college, you will receive a "R" number.

Step 2. Log into Raidernet to complete the Health Sciences Interest form. Indicate your interest in being admitted to the LPN/Paramedic Mobility Pathway program no later than the 4th Friday in January of the year you are seeking admission. You may indicate your interest in 3 health science programs but you need to designate which program is first area of interest, second area of interest, etc. You may indicate your interest in 3 health science degree programs. You should designate which program is your first area of interest, second area of interest, and third area of interest. You may be considered for admission to any of the 3 health science programs you designated as an area of interest.

Step 3. Declare AS Pre-Nursing as your major. If you have not already declared AS Pre-Nursing as your major, you should change your major to Nursing. This will best prepare you for admission to either Nursing or one of the Health Science programs.

Step 4. Meet minimum eligibility requirements to be considered for admission to the LPN/Paramedic Pathway. Minimum requirements

- Grade of C or higher in required general education/supporting courses
- GPA of 2.5
- Completed minimum 10 credit hours of required general education/supporting courses, which must include the following:
  - BIOL 2010 (must be completed within 5 years of the application deadline)
  - MATH 1530
  - PSYC 1030
- Pass proficiency exam. If graduation from LPN program is within the past 3 years or less, the proficiency exam requirement is waived.

Step 5. Students meeting minimum eligibility requirements will be ranked on the following 3 criteria (see below table):

LPN/Paramedic to RN Pathway Admission Information

Step 6. The top ranked qualified applicants will be offered admission to the program (Step 5). Applicants offered admission will be notified via an "Alert" in Raidernet and must accept or decline their admission within 1 week. After one week, the "Alert" will disappear. Failure to respond may result in the applicant forfeiting their selection for admission. Applicants not offered admission will need to resubmit the area of interest form the following year. . If you are offered admission to a program, you must accept or decline admission to that program. If you decline admission, you may then be considered for admission to another program.
